

#1 Hunter Gatherers - p.26 (1st Paragraph), p.27 (1st paragraph)

Early humans were _____. This means that they spent their time _____. This lifestyle was challenging because _____ and _____.

#3 Permanent Shelters - p.28 (1st-4th Paragraphs)

As people became more successful farmers, they _____.

The first permanent shelters included features like _____ and _____.

The development of houses was important for people because it _____, _____, and _____.

#5 Developing New Jobs - p.30 (All Paragraphs)

Farming allowed people to develop _____.

By focusing on one job, people could _____.

For example, farmers _____.

Overall, the development of skilled workers led to _____.

#2 Stable Food Supply - p.27 (2nd-4th Paragraphs)

Eventually humans stopped following the animals and instead _____.

Farmers also _____ (trained) animals to help with the work. Examples include _____, _____, and _____.

#4 Establishing Communities - p.29 (2nd-4th Paragraphs)

As a result of people settling near their farms, _____.

People could _____.

For example, some workers _____, while others _____. Working together allowed for _____.

With more time and energy, people's lives became _____ and more _____.

#6 Beginning of Trade - p.31 (All Paragraphs)

Once people settled in towns, they began to _____.

Traders wanted items that would _____.

Valuable items to trade included _____ and _____. The increase of trade brought people _____, which helped to spread _____ and _____.