

Egyptian Mythology Choice Assignment

30 Formative Points - Due Friday

Option One - God or Goddess Poster Directions:

1. Write your name and class period on the back of your poster.
2. Write the name of the god/goddess at the top or bottom of your poster
3. Sketch the hieroglyphics of your god/goddess
4. Explain what the name of your god/goddess means (if provided)
5. Clearly state what they are the god or goddess of
6. Sketch a large, colorful image of your god/goddess
7. Describe and explain your image - symbols, features. Etc.
8. Describe any temples built in their honor, or festivals held to honor them.
9. Poster should be fully colored - corner to corner!

Poster Grading

- Poster contains all required info _____/15
 - Information is spelled correctly and is accurate. _____/5
 - Poster is neat and completely colored,
with a picture of the god or goddess _____/10
- TOTAL....._____/30

Egyptian Mythology Choice Assignment

30 Formative Points - Due Friday

Option Two - Egyptian God/Goddess-Survivor Contestants
May use Google Slides or Docs:

Pick 5 gods or goddesses and give us a "where are they now update".
Describe them as if they are human and are contestants on Survivor.

- 1) Introduce us to the gods and goddesses as modern day people. (3-5 sentences per god/goddess)
 - a) What do they do now?
 - b) What are their interests?
 - c) What special skill sets do they bring to the island?

Example - Horus, who is best known as the god of the sky, is currently an astronomer (scientist who studies the stars). He is obsessed with the sun and moon cycles and is also an active member of a bird watching club. Horus is smart, but can easily get involved in family drama and conflict.

- 2) Which Egyptian god or goddess would win the game of Survivor and why? (3-4 sentences)

Egyptian Survivor Grading

- 5 gods/goddess are given a modern identity (At least 3-5 sentences per god/goddess) _____/15
- Information is spelled correctly and accurately relates back to the god or goddess from Egypt. _____/5
- Winner is predicted and supported with reason _____/10
- TOTAL....._____/30

Egyptian Mythology Choice Assignment

30 Formative Points - Due Friday