

- Hammurabi
- Babylon King who created a series of laws and had them published throughout the kingdom for all.

- Cambyses II
- Son of Cyrus lead for 8 years, successfully captured Egypt but died on way back

1760 BCE

559 BCE

530 BCE

530 BCE

- Cyrus The Great
- Successful Military Commander. The earliest monotheistic religion. Cyrus left local rulers in place and allowed them to continue practicing their preferred religion.

- Zoroastrianism
- Main religion of Persian Empire and considered the earliest monotheistic religion